Guidelines for Panel Proposals

All panel submissions must include a chair, co-chair (optional), 1-2 discussant(s), and 4-6 papers. The chair, co-chair and discussant cannot be the same person. More than one discussant may be added, but please keep in mind that there must be enough time during the panel for questions.

ALL panel members must be signed up for a free IPISA website account in order to have their names included as a chair, co-chair or discussant in the panel proposal. Panels submitted with a description only will be viewed as incomplete.

Language

Panel proposals for any session must be submitted in English or French.

Panel Title

- The title cannot exceed 25 words.
- Review your use of language. Use a spell-checker to make sure you have not made any mistakes.
- Do not use ALL CAPS and Capitalize titles in English as per the example below:

The screenshot shows the website interface for the 25th World Congress of Political Science. At the top, there are two main menu items: 'Submit' (with sub-items 'Submit an abstract' and 'Submit a panel') and 'My Proposals' (with sub-items 'List of your abstracts' and 'List of your panels'). A blue arrow points from the 'List of your panels' link to the 'My Congress' button in the top right navigation bar. Below the navigation bar is a large banner with the IPSA AISP logo, the text '25th World Congress of Political Science', and the dates 'July 21-26, 2018 | Brisbane, Australia'. A dark grey navigation bar contains links for 'ABOUT', 'PROGRAM', 'CALL FOR PROPOSALS', and 'DESTINATION'. Below this is the 'List of your panels' section, which contains a single link: 'How to Submit a Panel Proposal'. A blue arrow points from this link to a callout box. At the bottom, there is a 'PARTNERS' section with logos for 'brisbane australia's new world city', 'BRISBANE CITY', and 'Tourism and Events Queensland'.
